11. PRACTICAL INFORMATION

About Islamabad:

Combining a rich history, the confluence of many a civilization and temperate climate, Islamabad - the capital city of Pakistan, is one of the most beautiful cities in the South Asian region. Wide, tree-lined streets adorn the various sectors and zones of the city, making it accessible and spectacular. Administratively, the city is located within the Islamabad Capital Territory, which is federally controlled, even though historically Islamabad has been a part of the Punjab province; more specifically the Potohar Plateau. The city was built between 1960 - 1970 to replace Karachi as the capital. It has a population of 2 million and together with its neighbouring twin city of Rawalpindi, the greater Islamabad-Rawalpindi metropolitan area is the third largest in Pakistan with a population of over 4.5 million inhabitants.

Following website contains useful information about Islamabad:

Weather:

In July, Pakistan experiences extremely hot and dry weather. In general, the average temperature in Islamabad at the beginning of July remains 36 °C to 38 °C. It is recommended to wear cotton stuff during the month of July.

Dress:

The dress in public places is usually modest and casual.

Language:

Urdu is the national language, but English is widely spoken and understood in the city.

Time Zone:

Pakistan is GMT/UTC +5.

Banks & Currency:

The Pakistani currency unit is Rupee. It is recommended that participants may keep some US Dollars in cash for expenses in Islamabad. However, larger shops and hotels accept credit cards, mostly VISA, MasterCard and American Express. Bank hours are from 9am to 5pm Monday to Thursday, 9am to 12:30pm & 2:30pm to 5:30pm on Fridays. Bargaining is expected in street markets and small stores. The current exchange rate is USD 1 = 285 PKR (as per the National Bank website). Open market currency rates may slightly differ.

Electricity:

Electrical current is 230 volts, 50Hz. Round two- or three-pin plugs are used. For other types of plug's converters are easily available in the market.
