No. 007/23

The Embassy of Japan in Thailand presents its compliments to the Asia-Pacific Telecommunity (APT) Secretariat, and has the honor to refer to the letter of the Secretary General, APT/APT GA-16/2023/1, dated 7 February 2023, inviting Member Administrations to nominate candidates for the Secretary General and Deputy Secretary General of the APT for the next 3 year term, who will be elected at the 16th Session of the General Assembly.

The Embassy of Japan in Thailand has further the honor to inform the latter that the Government of Japan has decided to present the candidacy of Mr. KONDO Masanori for re-election for the post of the Secretary General of the APT.

Mr. KONDO has accumulated eminent experience and expertise in his career as shown in his curriculum vitae attached hereto. With his wide-ranging experience, in-depth knowledge, and excellent coordination abilities, he has played a significant role in fostering an active APT since his inauguration as Secretary General in February 2021. By placing high value on working together with members to tackle challenging issues, Mr. KONDO has taken initiatives in making various improvements of the APT activities, through which he has demonstrated an outstanding leadership and competence in administering the organization and has worked to promote beneficial partnerships with other international organizations, member countries and private sectors.

The Government of Japan is confident that Mr. KONDO continues to be well qualified for the second term of the post of the Secretary General of the APT and that his re-appointment would be a further benefit and valuable asset to the APT.

The Embassy of Japan in Thailand avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the APT Secretariat the assurances of its highest consideration.
