

The 25th Meeting of the South Asian Telecommunication Regulators' Council (SATRC-25) was held on 11 - 13 November 2024 in New Delhi, India

The 25th Meeting of the South Asian Telecommunication Regulators' Council (SATRC-25) was successfully concluded on 13 November 2024 in New Delhi, India. It was hosted by the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI).

Honorable Mr. Jyotiraditya M. Scindia, Minister for Communications, India, delivered the inaugural address at the opening on 11 November 2024. The meeting was attended by the heads of telecommunication regulatory bodies of SATRC Member countries and designated senior level officers, totaling 90 delegates who represented 9 SATRC Members and 12 Affiliate Members.

The SATRC meeting is held annually to discuss and coordinate regulatory and other related issues in the area of telecommunication and ICT that are common for the regulators of SATRC Members.

The SATRC-25 discussed the key policy and regulatory issues in the SATRC Member countries. SATRC-25 included sessions for Regulators' Roundtable, Industry-Regulator Dialogue, Sharing Regulatory Experiences and Industry Sessions to facilitate the development of the telecom/ICT sector in South Asia. The Regulators' Roundtable was held exclusively for the heads of regulators to discuss and share thoughts on important regulatory issues that need regional collaboration specifically for the SATRC Member countries and generally for the Asia-Pacific region.
